PRESIDING JUDGES' STATEWIDE ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER REGARDING REDISTRICTING CHALLENGES

On 10 November 2021 the Alaska Redistricting Board issued its Final Proclamation of Redistricting defining new state legislative districts for the next decade. The decennial redistricting has usually been challenged in court, often in more than one case. Civil Rule 90.8 sets procedures for these challenges. Any challenge must be filed within 30 days of the proclamation. Rule 90.8(b)(1). The assignment of a judicial officer and possible consolidation of challenges are to be made by the presiding judges and the administrative director. Rule 90.8(f).

Once a challenge is filed, the assigned judge is to hold a scheduling conference. Rule 90.8(e). It will not be possible to determine to whom the cases will be assigned until all challenges have been filed. If a challenge is filed, the presiding judge of the district in which the challenge is filed will hold the requisite scheduling conference. However, no judge will be permanently assigned to any case until the 30-day period has passed. Then the presiding judges and the administrative director, if necessary, will address consolidation and the permanent assignment of a judicial officer. Only that assignment will trigger the period for the change of a judge pursuant to Civil Rule 42(c).
