

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ALASKA
ORDER NO. 1852

Amending Civil Rule 69(i)(2) to include reference to alcohol underage cases and adding new subsections (j) and (k) concerning bank sweeps on multiple debtors and non-attorney representation of municipal corporations.

IT IS ORDERED:

Civil Rule 69 is amended to read as follows:

Rule 69. Execution—Examination of Judgment Debtor—Restraining Disposition of Property—Execution After Five Years.

* * * *

(i) Execution on Alaska Permanent Fund Dividends.

* * * *

(2) The administrative director may adopt procedures for executing upon Alaska Permanent Fund dividends by electronic means to satisfy judgments in criminal, minor offense, and alcohol underage cases and judgments in other cases in favor of the state. The procedures shall be established by administrative bulletin and may include procedures for issuance of writs of execution in electronic format, service of writs and notices of levy by electronic means, return of service, deposit of funds seized and other execution procedures.

* * * *

(j) Bank Sweeps by Municipal Corporations or the State. The administrative director may adopt procedures allowing municipal corporations or the state to execute on judgments in criminal, minor offense, and alcohol underage cases by conducting bank sweeps on multiple debtors using a single writ of execution. The procedures shall be established by administrative bulletin and may include a requirement that court-approved forms be used for the writ and notice of levy, a requirement that the municipal corporations or the state agree to follow specific procedures, and limitations on service of process fees.

(k) Non-Attorney Representation of Municipal Corporations. In addition to the authority provided under District Court Civil Rule 15(a), a municipal corporation may be represented in proceedings to execute on judgments in criminal, minor offense, and alcohol underage cases by any officer or employee authorized in writing to represent it, AS 22.20.040 notwithstanding.
