

THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ALASKA

ORDER NO. 190

Amending Rule 41,
Rules Governing
the Administration of All Courts.

IT IS ORDERED:

Paragraphs (a) and (b) of Rule 41, Rules Governing the Administration of All Courts, are amended to read as follows:

- (a) Where a district judge is stationed in or near a political subdivision, the district judge shall preside over all cases brought by the political subdivision for violation of its ordinances. The district judge shall hold such sessions of court as are required by the laws of the political subdivision and shall co-operate in every reasonable manner with the officials and enforcement officers of the political subdivision to the end that judicial services of a superior quality are rendered.
- (b) If no district judge is stationed in or near a political subdivision, a magistrate shall preside over all cases brought by the political subdivision for violation of its ordinances. The magistrate shall hold such sessions of court as are required by the laws of the political subdivision and shall co-operate in every manner with the officials and law enforcement officers of the political subdivision to the end that judicial services of a superior quality are rendered.
